

EST. 1946

THE KING'S
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

June 2024

Dear Senior parents/guardians and students,

It is my honor to present the following text choices for AP Literature and CP 4 Summer Reading. Please read through the instructions carefully before purchasing, borrowing, or marking any texts.

Instructions

Each class will have unique reading requirements. Each class must:

1. Annotate the required book in detail, according to the King's annotation instructions for all grades.
2. Be prepared to write about the required text(s) and choice text(s) on the first day of school.
3. Not rely on Sparknotes or Cliffnotes or other means of short-cutting these texts.
4. Review the lists below for details about required texts for your class.

Advanced Placement English Literature and Composition

- Purchase and Annotate (see attached instructions) The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald.
- Select one novel or play to read from the AP Literature Titles list linked to this document. Complete one journal entry on this work (see Journal Response Template 2023 below). Please note: these titles are chosen by College Board, so please choose a work that does not conflict with the TKCS mission and statement of faith.
Note: ideas, notes, and annotations will be used on the first day of school.

College Preparatory English 4: College Prep and Honors

- Purchase and Annotate (see attached instructions) The Importance of Being Earnest.
- Complete one journal entry on this required read (see Journal Response Template 2023 below).
- Note: ideas, notes, and annotations will be used on the first day of school.

Journal Response Template 2024

This entry should be typed in proper MLA format. These documents should be printed, stapled, and brought to class on the first day of school.

EST. 1946

THE KINGS'
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Journal #:

Your Name:

Title and Author:

Summary: Summarize important aspects of the novel in a minimum of five sentences. Use main points only. Avoid using your personal opinions. Plagiarized summaries will receive a "0" grade.

Two Favorite Quotes: Use the following format to indicate two of your favorite or important or powerful sentences that appear in this section of the novel. Write them out in full with page number citations. Add two sentences explaining why these quotes stood out to you and why they matter to the novel.

Page(s): _____ Quote:

Explanation:

Page(s): _____ Quote:

Explanation:

Personal Connection: Respond in 3-4 thoughtful sentences that describe how one element of this book connects to another text, a historical event, or a current event.

Literary Response: Read the questions below. Literary Response: Referring to one of the attached essential questions for literature, write out the question and a thoughtful response to the question, using evidence from the book to support your statements. Use direct quotes and paraphrases from your Choice Novel as evidence.

Essential Questions for Literature

Choose one of the questions below in order to complete the Literary Response section of your journal entry.

The American Dream

- What is the American Dream, and to what extent is it achievable for the characters?
- In what ways does the American Dream mean different things for different characters?

EST. 1946

THE KINGS'
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

- What is the perspective of the nature, culture, or region of this work in regard to the American Dream, and what factors create those perceptions?

Decisions, Actions, and Consequences

- What is the relationship between decisions and consequences for one or more of the characters?
- How do the decisions and actions of the characters reveal their personalities?
- How do decisions, actions, and consequences vary depending on the different perspectives of the people involved?

Conflict and Change

- How does conflict lead to change for the characters?
- What problem-solving strategies do the characters use to manage conflict and change?
- How does a character's point of view affect the way he or she deals with conflict?
- What personal qualities help a character to deal with conflict and change?

Constructing Identities

- How do one or more characters form and shape their identities? How do they define who they are?
- How does what others think about a character affect how he or she thinks about himself or herself?
- In a culture where we are bombarded with other people trying to define us, how do we make decisions for ourselves?

The Human Condition

- In the face of adversity, what causes some characters to prevail while others fail?

Culture: Values, Beliefs, and Rituals

- How does family play a role in shaping one or more characters' values and beliefs?
- To what extent do belief systems shape and/ or reflect culture and society?
- When a person's individual choices are in direct conflict with his or her family or society, what are the consequences?
- What role or purpose does religion/ spirituality serve in the culture of this work?
- How do values and beliefs shape who characters are as individuals? How do these influence that character's behavior?

Social Justice

- How does power or the lack of power affect individuals in this work?
- How are prejudice and bias created? How do characters overcome these creations?
- How do labeling and stereotyping influence how characters look at and understand the world?

EST. 1946

THE KINGS'
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

- What are the causes and consequences of prejudice and injustice? How does an individual's response to them reveal his or her true character and his or her morals?

Chaos and Order

- What is the importance of civilization and what factors support or destroy its fabric?
- What are the politics and consequences of war, and how do these vary based on an individual or cultural perspective?

Utopia and Dystopia

- What are the ideals (i.e. freedom, responsibility, justice, community, etc.) that should be honored in a utopian (perfect) society? To what degree are these ideals followed by the character(s)?

Freedom and Responsibility

- What is the relationship between freedom and responsibility in this novel?
- What sacrifices do the characters make for freedom?

Good and Evil in the World

- What is the function of the characters' will in relationship to good and evil as they are presented in the text?
- How do the different cultures in the text shape the definitions of good and evil?

Heroes and Heroines

- How do the attributes of a hero change and/ or remain the same over time?
- When does a character's positive personality trait become a tragic flaw?
- What is the role of a hero or "she-roe" (female hero, coined by Maya Angelou) in a culture?
- How do various cultures reward or recognize their heroes and/ or heroines?

Language and Literature

- How is a character's understanding of culture and society constructed through and by language?
- How is language used to manipulate people in this novel?
- How does language influence the way characters think, act, and perceive the world?
- How does the author use the resources of language to impact an audience?
- What universal themes emerge in this work that are of interest or concern to all cultures and societies?

EST. 1946

THE KINGS'
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Love and Sacrifice

- What are the boundaries of love and sacrifice, and where does one draw the line between them?
- What are the factors that move individuals, communities, or nations to great sacrifice, and what are the consequences?

Nature in the Balance

- What are the responsibilities of the individual and/ or society in regard to the health of the environment?
- How do different world views lead to different views toward nature?
- How does nature inspire a character in this work?

Our View of Ourselves and the World

- How does the main character know what he or she knows?
- How does the character know about the world shape the way he or she views himself?
- How do personal experiences shape one or more characters' view of others?
- What does it mean to be an insider or an outsider?
- What does it mean to "grow up"? What turning points determine our individual pathways to adulthood in this novel?
- Are things fated to happen no matter what, or does a character believe his or her actions can change the course of his or her life?

The Pursuit of Happiness

- What is happiness and what is the degree of the importance of happiness to the main character?
- Why does happiness seem so elusive for one or more characters in this work?
- How much does a culture or society shape a character's understanding or concept of happiness?

Relationships and Community

- What are the elements that build a strong friendship in this work?
- What do the characters learn from different generations?
- How is conflict an inevitable part of relationships in this work?
- What personal qualities help or hinder the formation of relationships for one or more characters?
- How are characters transformed through their relationships with others?
- In this novel, what are the individual's responsibilities to the community and the community's responsibility to the individual?